RTI & WoCo

RTI stands for Round Table International. Worldwide there are Round Table clubs in about 60 countries. Every association has its own board of which all clubs of that particular country is a member. The Table world is divided in regions such as EMA, Indaba and PACART. The chairmen of these regions form the board of RTI.

The board of RTI has a yearly meeting with all its members. To this meeting not only the boards of the different associations are invited but all its members too. The RTI Meeting therefore potentially is the biggest event in the Table world. About 40.000 members could attend this meeting, as we expect to host at least 750.

WoCo stands for World Council. Members of WoCo are Active 20-30 and Apex. RTI has been a member of WoCo. Every 2 years the Meeting is combined. As a result Tablers have a chance to meet new friends with the same ideas, member of a different club as a result of politics. These new friends come from the U.S., Panama, name it.

Alkmaar is proud to have good relations with the 40+ organization. We expect to have many guests from that organization. It would be great to be surrounded by history. It is all about the Table Spirit!

Where and When

The RTI & WoCo Meeting will be held from 12 to the 16th of August 2009. It will take place in Alkmaar, The Netherlands. Alkmaar is an old city in the north-western part of Holland. It is known as the city that beat the Spaniards after an 80 year war. It is also known as the city that hosts the Dutch soccer champions, AZ. And furthermore famous for its canals, Cheese market and red light area.

The main hotel is in Egmond aan Zee. The hotel offers around 800 beds, meeting rooms and playing areas. It is close to the beach.

In August the weather can be lovely with temperatures of around 25 degrees Celsius. But as it remains Holland it can rain too.

Alkmaar is by car 35 minutes from Schiphol Airport. It is situated 40 km from Amsterdam, as you might know our capital and is known for a couple of reasons but mainly because of its museums.....

Where and When

THE BEAUTIFUL CITY OF ALKMAAR!

Alkmaar is above all Holland's cheese town. During the season from the first Friday of April to the first Friday of September a traditional cheese market is being held here on Friday mornings between 10 and 12.30. The cheeses are sold by dealers on a clap of hands. Thereupon the 400 year old cheese porters' guild goes into action, carrying the cheese off on barrows after the lot has been weighed at the Waag (the official scales). In the Waaggebouw - in which the scales are housed - a cheese museum that tells everything about dairy farming has been established.

Alkmaar is historical with around 400 monuments. The Waag, dating back in its earliest form to the 14th century, the 16th century town-hall, Grote St. Laurens Church and the many courtyards, facades and canals give the town an ambience all of its own. With the past as a setting, the town has a modern stock of shops offering a wide choice. Besides the predominantly small shops in the old centre, the Noorder Arcade with large scale shopping facilities stands by the side of the Noord Holland Canal.

Alkmaar is the biggest town in the region and therefore also its centre for going out. There is a range of restaurants of various kinds, pavement cafés and coffee houses, as well as theatres and museums. Numerous events are also organized including The Relief of Alkmaar, Culinary Plaza and Cheese Town Jazz. Relaxation can also be found in the Geestmerambacht recreational area close by, and the parks and sports facilities.

The costs

The costs of the event are € 455 per person. This includes all parties, dinners, transport, entrance to meetings and drinks during the official program. Children don't pay registration.

Once you are in Alkmaar you only pay for drinks if you don't participate in the official program and after the official program in the RTI Bar. Plus we organize tours for which we have to charge you some money.

We offer children care. You will find a desk in the hotel to make your reservation. We also want to offer special tours for children to parks or the Zoo for instance. Prices will be made public at the desk in the hotel.

Accommodation is € 60 per person per night if you share a 2 person room.

What's included

Alkmaar is offering the chance of a Table lifetime! You can be part of an incredible Table venue visited by around 750 Tablers from all over the world! In one of the most beautiful cities in the world! We offer you brilliant parties, an 24/4 RTI Bar with live entertainment, splendid tours to make you experience Holland but most of all fun, fun, fun!

It starts on Wednesday with a real Holland Night in the hotel, on Thursday you can enjoy tours after which we have an evening with live entertainment in one of the biggest clubs in Holland. On Friday the RTI AGM will take place, we will visit and open the Cheese Market and the Not the Ladies' tour will bring you to Amsterdam. Nation's Night will be in open air with live performances. On Saturday it is time to relax before the Gala. For people who can't get enough of some districts in Amsterdam there is a replay of the Not the Ladies' tour. The Gala will be in a special atmosphere with live entertainment.

There will be tours for you and the family offered to you every day. You can play golf nearby on the club of which one of the Alkmaar Tablers is a PRO. There will be a daily newspaper, and there will be tour suggestions made every day.

Let's enjoy the fact that we are lucky to be Tablers!

Tours

Never been in Holland or Alkmaar? The RTI World Meeting 2009 gives you a chance to see something of this beautiful country below sea level.

RTI has created some great tours for you! Every tour contains a different, but typically Dutch program. Did you always want to know how the people in Holland lived ages ago? Or would you like to see the world famous paintings in Het Rijksmuseum? How about a city walk through Alkmaar, where you can see typical 'small estates'?

A special tour for men exclusively, who would not like to see, where Amsterdam is so famous for? This tour will bring you to the 'Amsterdamse Wallen' better known as the red light district. Of course we cannot leave Holland without seeing the Windmills and the Dutch Tulips.

Every tour shows you a different type of Holland; the busy city of Amsterdam, the quiet town Marken, where it looks like centuries ago, walking through the city or sailing on the water, every tour has something special for you. If you would like to book one of these tours, check our website www.rti2009.com.

The prices of the tours are in a range of Euro 25 to Euro 99. Please check the days on which the tours are available and be aware that tours can be subjected to change depending on the number of participants!

Accommodation

- Area information

More than 1000 years ago Egmond started out as a fishing village, but since the beginning of this century it has become popular with tourists. Both the fishing and tourist identity of Egmond are still evident in the characteristic streets of the centre.

Prominent on the boulevard is the lighthouse Jan van Speyck, which can be seen from the whole village. The wide beach offers many facilities such as pavilions and sailing and surf possibility.

With terraces, restaurants, a subtropical swimming pool and sports facilities, you will never have a dull moment in the village centre. The charming shopping area offers a great variety of different shops.

Surrounding Egmond you will find breathtaking dunes and nature reserves of North Holland. In the hinterland, especially in the direction of Egmond aan den Hoef and Egmond-Binnen, the beautiful flower fields beckon in spring.
